

The Breckenridge Outdoor Education Center's Junior Adventure's Camp

February 20-22, 2010

What is the Jr. Adventure's Camp? This course is specially designed for boys and girls, 8-14 years old with special needs and/or disabilities. The camp is designed to provide youth the opportunity to ski/snowboard, boost self-esteem through challenging experiences, and have fun in a social environment. This course will be based out of Breckenridge, Colorado with accommodations at the Breckenridge Outdoor Education Center's (BOEC) Scott Griffith Lodge.

The outdoor activities include adaptive downhill skiing, accessible ropes course, arts and crafts, and non-competitive games. Campers will be empowered to practice social skills, teamwork and life skills that transfer to everyday life. Students will be involved in cooking, cleaning and gear preparation during the course. However, the emphasis will be on fun in a structured setting.

Staff will not be able to accommodate those students needing full-time personal care; however, care providers are welcome to accompany students at a reduced rate.

Program Cost: $500/student (scholarship information included in application packet)
Transportation is also available to and from the Denver Area for $100.00.

Included in the Cost: All meals, lodging, private adaptive ski/ride instruction, lift ticket, equipment rental, and transportation during the program, as well as 24-hour staff supervision.

Tentative Itinerary:

- Day 1 Drop off students by 10 AM, icebreaker games and nature crafts.
- Day 2 Full-day ski/ride lesson with the BOEC's Adaptive Ski Program (1 on 1 lesson)
- Day 3 Team building, trust activities and Accessible ropes course. Pick up 4:30 PM.

Registration: If interested, call 1-800-383-BOEC (2632) to request an application packet, or you can download an application off of our website at www.boec.org. Applicants will be screened for appropriateness by BOEC staff upon receipt of a completed packet with deposit. Space is limited so please respond promptly.
